Re: Michal Stankiewicz

To whom it may concern.

I met with Michal in June 1998 when he joined the marketing team of LOT Polish Airlines, the national carrier of Poland. Michal held a position of Advertising and Promotion Specialist and was responsible for the company's promotion in Western and Central Europe. Consequently, he was responsible for managing business relationships with international magazine publishers such as Time Magazine. In April 2001, he was promoted to the position of Advertising and Promotion Manager and later, in September 2002, Michal was given a more senior role of a Marketing Strategist.

I had the pleasure of co-operating with Michal on many occasions and was always impressed by his ability to create and maintain strong business relationships. Furthermore, Michal is honest, reliable and outgoing individual who is very committed to his employer, treating their business as it was his own. He also possesses extensive knowledge in marketing as well as strong communication, negotiation and influencing skills. It has been a real pleasure working with him and I am sure that he will make a valuable contribution to his new employer.

I would strongly recommend Michal to any employer requiring an experienced marketing professional and please, don't hesitate to contact me, should you need any further information.

Sincerely

Nicholas Robinson.
